Challenge:

I regret that an unfortunate implication about my present office prevents my coming to your sale as I had intended. When you have time I should be glad of a mixed lot cuts, 1/2 Cuts, & Fluents, & anything else you may include - Some fine & cheap 1/2 cuts will be appreciated, also anything else you may send -

Yrs Truly
M. Jenkins

Gentlemen: You seem to have "quite forgotten" me, but if you will send me up a "mixed lot" of "Coins & things" I'll try to unload some for you & keep some for myself. Particularly if you have any fine & uncirculated Jacksons I should like to see them. Do I get anything for my "noble lot of 69 Jacksons" by Haseltine sent you long since for disposal by auction?

You have asked me several times to "remit", which was unnecessary, as I always do so just as soon as possible; and as I have received a "Card" from the party to whom I sent the 99 stating that he would not retain it, but would send it back in a day or two, there will be nothing to prevent my settling up with you by returning the 99, & paying you bal. due. Please, therefore, at your convenience, send me a Credit Statement of what my last assignment to you was for, & I will at once "square the 99" so that you need no longer sleep uneasily at night or "per diem" —

Yrs truly M. Pattison.

G
Gentlemen:

June 6/90

My fam of the 3<sup>d</sup> is at hand to-night, together with "statement" which shows me entitled to $17<sup>25</sup> Credit. I therefore enclose Cheque for $15<sup>87</sup>, which will settle in full all my indebtedness to you ($33<sup>12</sup>) excepting the last things sent, the 1799 Cent & 58 Indian head.
I have tried the 99 Cent in another direction, & will report progress in a few days. I made the same statement to Customer which you make me; that it was unlikely he would secure "a better one for the money" - but somehow it didn't suit his views, not as to price, for he is willing to pay more - but condition.
I will however see that it is returned or paid for as quickly as is possible.

I'm very sorry that you found it necessary to sell Albion Coins of 20 to 25 Cents bullion value for "1 Cent"; as witnessed lot 694: do your Customers only receive Consideration from you when they buy of you? Or don't you care to aid them when they are forced to depend upon your care to sell small lots of pieces, be they good or poor, at auction?

I am both ready & willing & able to make much business for us both: but I would like to know whether you are averse to giving me a few extra lines or numbers in a Catalogue, when it makes "dollars" difference to me? It is indeed lucky for me that I did not return the Consignment as I had intended, for at the close of a "2 days sale in one", 716 lots, I was aware the bidding on anything is not brisk. Casually looking over the "returns" you have made me, I do not find so much funct with the prices, as I do with the arrangement, to which a bit of care would have added much (proportionately) to my receipts.

Yours Truly
M. S. Smith,

June 16, 1890

Gentlemen:

June 16/90

I herewith return you 1799 Cent.
I have a particular Customer to deal with in this case; he does not kick at price, but wants a better price for the same or more money.
He don't seem to care which but the Condition of the 99 must be better. The worst of it is that he refrains from buying more & other pieces until I have produced a suitable 99; & so there's a "dead lock" in traffic. I quote your "notes" to him; but he is one who always wants (+ will have) his own way. Therefore, when you get a better one for $25 to 35<sup>00</sup>, let me have it.
I still owe you 50<sup>00</sup> for the 1858 Ind. bear medal.
This amt. I will remit at some other time, with your kind permission for the delay. I presume you will shortly acknowledge receipt of last check to balance up, & will sell me a lot at low prices so that I can make a bit on the deal. Yrs Truly M. Jenkins

Y<sup>r</sup> friend
I wish I could tell you this today ~~Monday~~ <sup>Tuesday</sup> May 3rd the famous pkg. reaches me to-night (Tuesday) And you must have quite misapprehended the quality of these Idemias. However, I will try to see if I can dispose of any; but I hardly think I shall need to hold the lot for a month. This lot is hardly as I desire it, but perhaps you were too busy to send many good ones. However, I'll try a bit with a few of them
